

Explore how to build a strong business network in Austria with actionable tips and strategies for success in Austrian business.

The Cabinet is entrusted with the highest administrative duties of the Republic of Austria. The Cabinet is composed of the Federal Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor and the other Federal Ministers.

How Populist Right-Wing Parties in National Governments Campaigned on Facebook in the 2019 European Elections. This chapter focuses on parties belonging to the populist right-wing I& D family, ...

Duties and designations of the Federal Ministries are established on the basis of the Amended Ministerial Law, last updated on 18 March 2025. Bundesministeriengesetz-Novelle 2025, BGBl. I ...

The Austrian Club London supports the following professional networks that have been created in cooperation with the Austrian Embassy in London and other organisations affiliated with Austria in ...

The Professional Women's Network (PWN) Vienna is the Austrian chapter of PWN Global, a federation of more than 24 professional networks that promotes gender-balanced leadership and equal ...

By actively pursuing these networking strategies, international students and professionals can successfully build a robust professional network in Austria, supporting both career goals and ...

The Government of Austria (German: Bundesregierung der Republik Österreich) is the executive cabinet of the Republic of Austria. It consists of the chancellor, who is the head of government, the vice chancellor and the ministers.

Discover how to build a strong professional network in Austria as an expat. Tips on local culture, events, digital platforms, and mentorship.

Executive political power formally rests in the hands of the cabinet. The chancellor, the cabinet, and their working majority in the Nationalrat are the real focal point of executive power in the political system. ...

Austrian Professional Network Cabinet

Web: <https://www.prospettivacasa.eu>

