

Parliament voted Friday to approve the composition of the new Cabinet with Prime Minister Rumen Radev. All of the votes in favour, a total of 122, came from Progressive Bulgaria. Democratic ...

After heated debates, Bulgaria's National Assembly approved the cabinet proposed by Rumen Radev of Progressive Bulgaria, the party that won the April 19 parliamentary elections and ...

"Smart Digital Group" LTD - manufacturer of industrial modular cabinets and enclosures for energy, telecommunications, and automation. We create solutions in line with European standards, ensuring ...

The Bulgarian parliament on 8 May approved the structure and lineup of a new cabinet headed by Rumen Radev, the former president known for pro-Russian statements, Nova.bg reports. ...

SOFIA, May 7 - Pro-Russian eurosceptic Rumen Radev promised on Thursday to bring down prices and restore stability in Bulgaria as he named a new cabinet after the president gave him ...

Bulgarian lawmakers voted Prime Minister Rumen Radev's cabinet into office. New Minister of Energy Iva Petrova comes from the position of deputy minister, which she has held since 2021.

Bulgaria's parliament voted in the nation's first single-party government with a majority this century after Rumen Radev's landslide victory, ushering in another European Union leader ...

Rumen Radev, Bulgaria's election winner, is mandated to form a new government after Progressive Bulgaria secured 44.6% in the April 19 elections.

Radev named Bulgaria PM, unveils anti-graft cabinet Majority win: Radev's Progressive Bulgaria secured the first outright parliamentary majority since 1997, ending years of unstable coalition rule.

Former Bulgarian President Rumen Radev was sworn in as Bulgaria's new prime minister on Friday, cementing a landslide election victory that shattered the country's long-fractured political ...

Web: <https://www.prospettivacasa.eu>

