

Instructions for using anti-tracking spiral wound tubing

13. Choose pad application site. It is important to place the SensaT.R.A.C.TM Pad in a central location to ensure that exudates from one wound are not drawn across to the other wound.

Refer to the V.A.C.® Via Therapy System IFU for complete safety information and instructions on how to apply the V.A.C.® Via Granufoam™ Spiral Dressing. Always remember to count and record the ...

Please discuss and review this information and the device instructions for use with your clinician so you can fully understand the benefits and risks of 3MTM V.A.C.® Therapy.

Instructions for Use and safety information: This is a quick reference showing the basic steps in a typical dressing application.

It is designed to promote wound healing by removing fluids and exudates from the wound bed, reducing edema, and stimulating granulation tissue formation. V.A.C.Via can be used to treat a variety of ...

Learn the basic application technique for applying V.A.C.® Dressings. Watch the other videos in the playlist for more application techniques. For use with 3M...

Many of these devices are small and lightweight, allowing patients full mobility. Due to varying designs, you should be familiar with the manufacturer's instructions for the specific device in ...

sic steps in a typical dressing application. As with any device, it is important to read and understand the detailed instructions for use and safety information (including information on exposed vessels, ...

Please refer to the specific product Instructions for Use and labeling prior to application for complete safety information, dressing application instructions, specific therapy settings and the procedure for ...

Apply Aurix onto the wound area by first filling any undermined areas, tunnels, or sinus tracts using the blunt needle. Apply using N-Terface®; or a gloved hand to spread a thin layer directly in contact with ...

V.A.C.® Therapy is a medical device system that creates an environment that promotes wound healing by delivering negative pressure (a vacuum) to the wound through a proprietary dressing and therapy ...

Please note: The information provided here is based on the instructions for use and is intended to offer you additional support when you need it. This should not replace any instruction given to you by your ...

Instructions for using anti-tracking spiral wound tubing

Web: <https://www.prospettivacasa.eu>

