

Madagascar adds household distribution box

The project showed, in particular, that hybrid rice cultivation and the fight against inbreeding in small ruminants are "appropriate" technologies for Madagascar as a country, with a very high rate of return ...

The distribution of family packs consisting of blankets cooking pots, buckets, plastic bowls and other household goods to 80 of the worst affected...

The creation of the Community Savings Groups (CGE) is carried out by the Madagascar Rural Development Support Organization - executive partner of UNICEF for the deployment of the ...

WHH is providing emergency assistance, including a cash-for-work program to clear access routes and clean drainage channels, the disinfection of wells and ...

Madagascar - a low-income country and the world's fourth largest island - faces endemic poverty, food insecurity, inequality, rapid population growth and urbanization, and significant dependence on ...

Faced with multiple shocks, hitting the most vulnerable the hardest, Madagascar would benefit from expanding its social protection programs to target more people.

In this sector, 90% of households are poor. Second, a slow accumulation of human capital has prevented people from escaping poverty through more productive and higher-paying employment.

In early 2023, two severe tropical storms hit Madagascar, submerging many roads and flooding and destroying schools and health centers. Moreover, recent evidence indicates that repeated cyclones ...

FEWS NET did not have access to food assistance distribution plans at the time of reporting; however, global humanitarian funding challenges are anticipated to limit the scale and impact of future ...

Madagascar is part of the global School Meals Coalition and the coalition of action on healthy diets from sustainable food systems. Between 2019 and 2021, the Government allocated ...

The programme is a large-scale social protection recovery programme financed by the World Bank in some of Madagascar's main cities and will become a more permanent long-term urban safety net ...

If the deprivation score is 1/3 or greater, the household (and everyone in it) is classified as multidimensionally poor. Individuals with a deprivation score greater than or equal to 1/5 but less ...

Madagascar adds household distribution box

ABSTRACT: Food insecurity dramatically increased in Madagascar over the last 10 years, hampering human development.

to Madagascar's most remote regions. Key operational enhancements in 2024 included the deployment of a LET-410 aircraft in Marc, replacing the Cessna Grand Caravan. This upgrade increased ...

Web: <https://www.prospettivacasa.eu>

