

Tajikistan should explore all possible ways to increase national capacity to the levels needed to fulfil its Article 5 commitments. Tajikistan should continue working with key stakeholders to address a ...

In 2024, Tajik authorities sought the detention, deportation, or extradition of several members of Group 24, a banned Tajik opposition movement, living in Lithuania, Poland, and Türkiye.

In a labyrinth of tunnels running beneath 4,000-metre peaks, Tajik miners are scrabbling to secure antimony, one of the metals at the centre of a worldwide race for rare minerals.

During the period under review, several Tajik citizens - mostly labor migrants - were recruited to the Islamic State of Khorasan (IS-K). In 2024, Tajik IS-K sympathizers carried out two large-scale ...

Tajikistan Issues "Temporary Advisory" Asking Citizens to Refrain from Travel to Russia porarily cease travel to Russia. The announcement came after the government raised concerns over ...

* CED inquiry procedure does not require specific acceptance by States parties. It applies from the entry into force of the Convention in the country.

A monthslong RFE/RL investigation on four Chinese-run projects in Tajikistan -- including three gold-mining ventures -- shows how Chinese firms are tapping into Tajikistan's vast mineral ...

Tajikistan is planning to increase aluminum production by completing the modernization of an aluminum smelter in the western town of Tursunzoda and a new mining and processing plant in the konchoch ...

The land border remained closed throughout the year to asylum seekers from Afghanistan, and the government refused entry to new arrivals without a valid Tajik visa.

In Tajikistan, a criminal case was initiated against Nasriddinov for publicly calling for extremist activity or justifying extremism, and in September he was sentenced to 8.5 years" imprisonment.

Web: <https://www.prospettivacasa.eu>

